Spending Habit Wrecks Homes

Spending, spending is the great American failing.

Many a heart ache, many a shattered life, many a forsaken home, many a crime, many a suicide, comes from the insatiable desire

Many say spending is good for trade.

"WILFUL WASTE MAKES .WOEFUL WANT"

and there can be No More Wilful Waste Than Paying House Rent, when Every Opportunity Is Offered you to Pay That Same Money on a home and Own It.

There is not a renter in El Paso but can

Half the Money you now Spend for Rent will Pay for a Home and in 5 years you would be Absolutely Independent.

Suppose you had commenced 5 years ago to put Half the Money you are now Spending for Rent into a home, what would you

A piece of property worth $5000.

But you did not, you continued to Give It To the Landlord and He Has the Property and You Have Nothing.

Think of This!

It's not too late. You can get a beautiful lot in Government Hill, the Prettiest Home Section of El Paso, for $10 down and pay it out at $5 a month. No mortgage to sign, no taxes to pay, no interest to pay. You can at once Build a House and commence to Spend Your Rent Money with yourself and Not Make Your Landlord Rich.

These are facts. Come and see us and talk the matter over. We have put more people in their own homes than any other firm in El Paso.

GRACE GEORGE NEXT MONDAY Seats go on sale Thursday morning for Miss Grace George, and the prices will be $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. "A Woman's Way," in which Miss George will be seen at the El Paso theater next Monday night, April 18, is in three acts and deals with characters and situa-tions typical of New York, and lending themselves to pure comedy.

Although the temporary infatuation of a young married man with a fascinating widow supplies the motive for the story, it is developed cleanly and gives Miss George, in the character of a sensible young woman who refuses to assume the conventional attitude of a wronged wife, an opportunity for the display of her exceptional gifts that has not been afforded her by any recent role.
